We need the internet to be free not controlled by corporations the internet was meant to be a collaboration of w.e people want to express and share with the world it offers a unlimited sea of knowledge among other things to think corporations could control the internet is ridiculous the internet should remain free